OUR ADVERTISERS APPRECIATE YOUR PATRONAGE

COACHES' CORNER

When I was a little boy, my parents taught me to share the good things . . . the high points in life with others.

I have always believed that a child is the product of his home, the culmination of all the hope, the encouragement and the desire that every parent strives to instill in one of his own.

This day belongs to all of you. The fathers and mothers who sweated and whooped on the sidelines and the sons who had the courage and the strength of their training to make victory a reality.

On this occasion, I can truly say that one dream, a dream I was taught by my parents, a dream of sharing has finally come true.

Congratulations!

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

I would be remiss if I did not make mention of a new enthusiasm which seems to have developed within the Booster's Club. Such enthusiasm will spread to our athletes, coaches, student body and community.

I will do no less than pledge my fullest cooperation to encourage and nurture a total athletic program.

My best wishes to our teams, their coaches and the Boosters.

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Once again we look forward to another year of athletic participation. This year, as the athletic director, I hope to maintain the great success that we have enjoyed from our program in the past. We look to the possibility of expanding our program to meet the needs and interests of even a greater percentage of our student body.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish continued success for each coach, and all the athletes participating in the program during the 1974-75 school year.

Allan Jones
Athletic Director

Following Football With The Leader

By Jeff Peters

Marple Newtown vs. Upper Darby --- Nov. 2

Marple Newtown's football Tigers return home this week to Harry Harvey Field after a month. Their "away" month opened with a big win at Penncrest but ended with a big loss to Conestoga last Friday night under the lights. In between was a tough loss in the closing minutes to Suburban Two Nether Providence.

The Tigers hope to get back on the winning track against an Upper Darby team that has also had some tough going in past weeks. The Royals have offered some stiff competition to Central League powers before being beaten and last week mounted a strong effort to tie Radnor.

The key to the game may be emotion as both teams appear evenly matched. Last year the Royals went into this game without a win and MN came in with a good record. Upper Darby responded by routing the localites and closed their season with a rush. They are hoping that their good ground game and strong defensive line will get them started on another season-ending win streak.

For Marple Newtown, the Tigers are hoping for a Central League victory before meeting the powerful trio of Radnor, Ridley, and Springfield. The Royals may be the last even match before MN takes on an underdog role.

The status of quarterback Pete Bartlett is uncertain as he is still hobbled by a bad knee. Bartlett's replacement Drew Roulston has performed very well, but the small matters of timing and coordination with the rest of the offense are difficult to a team used to Bartlett's cadence and timing for the past three years.

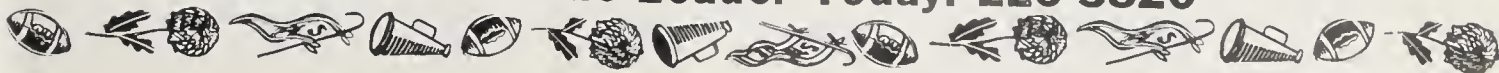

Defensively the Tigers have performed well, but not well enough at times. Don Cornman has been outstanding on the defensive line and linebackers Maze and Videon have played well. MN's secondary has been having some problems, but Dan Peterson picked off three interceptions in the first half last week.

This game will pit two teams near the bottom of the league standings but should be an exciting and hard-hitting contest.

Look for Roulston to gain confidence if he plays, or Bartlett to be an inspiring performer if he returns. Watch Cornman lead the Tigers defense against the Royal ground attack.
